

UQ Library – services for HDRs

Click on the images to visit the associated UQ library web page

Meet your liaison librarian - who can help you save time

Borrow, access and request resources

Manage, store and secure your research data

Access software and tools for your personal device and on Library computers

Tools and training

Explore the tools and training options to help you create, interpret, and enhance your data.

Text analysis

Access and interpret text and produce quantitative data for analysis.

Geographical Information Systems

Capture, analyse and present spatial or geographical data using OpenStreetMap or QGIS.

Data analysis

Analyse your data using in different ways to answer your research question.

Data visualisation

Create visual representations using Venngage and Voyant Tools.

Media

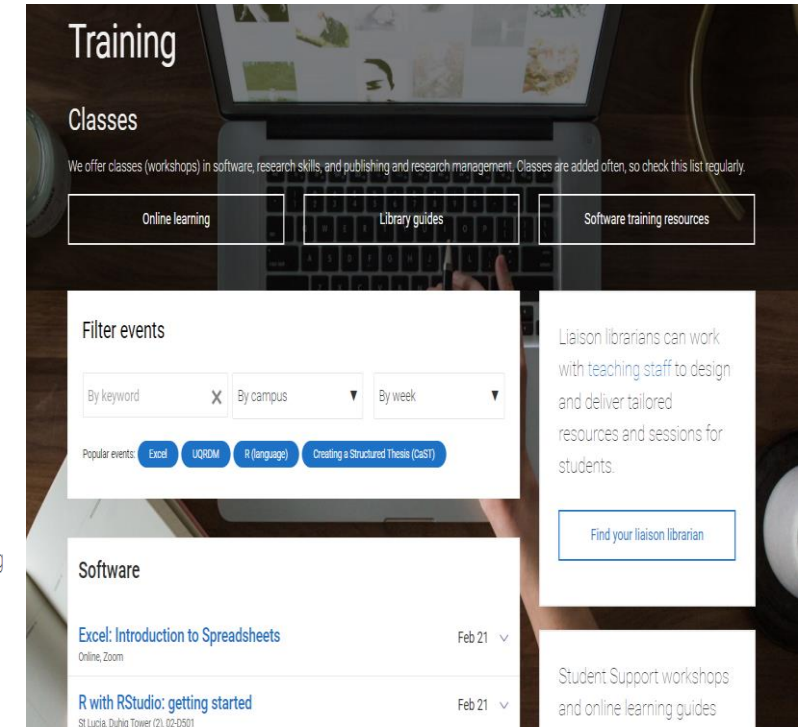

Learn how to design and create media using Adobe Creative Suite.

3D modelling

Create models using 3D modelling software and photogrammetry tools.

Training

Classes

We offer classes (workshops) in software, research skills, and publishing and research management. Classes are added often, so check this list regularly.

Online learning Library guides Software training resources

Filter events

By keyword By campus By week

Popular events: Excel UQRDM R \(language\) Creating a Structured Thesis \(CaST\)

Software

Excel: Introduction to Spreadsheets	Feb 21	▼
<small>Online, Zoom</small>
R with RStudio: getting started	Feb 21	▼
<small>St Lucia, Duhig Tower (2L, 02-0501)</small>

Liaison librarians can work with teaching staff to design and deliver tailored resources and sessions for students.

Find your liaison librarian

Student Support workshops and online learning guides

Visit the Liaison Librarian page: <https://web.library.uq.edu.au/library-services/liaison-librarians>

Book appointment